

Breaking Chains

Spend some time reading and thinking about one of the stories. Each one of them is real. Allow God time to speak to you.

Write your prayers on one of the paper slips and create a paper chain.

World Map

Pray for a situation or country where justice and peace are needed, maybe for a place with which you feel connected.

Write or draw a prayer on a post-it note and stick it on the country.

Healing the Broken-hearted

Pray for someone whose heart is broken. Those around you? Those who've been trafficked? Traffickers? You?

Take a plaster. Write something on it to represent the person and add it to the heart.

Ask God anything...

You have an audience with our Father God. You can ask Him anything.

Take this time to ask,
and then listen to what
He has to say to you.

Repent and Dream

Think about one thing for which we, corporately, need to repent about modern-day slavery. Using the dough, mould your repentance.

Squish it back into a blob! We thank God that He removes sin. Now mould the dough into the future dreams of those trapped in violent situations.

Prayer Journey

Press BEGIN and follow
the prayer journey.

Jenga

Pray for International Justice Mission using the fact sheets for inspiration.

Write your prayers on a block and create a Jenga tower. As it grows, take someone else's block out, pray for what they have written and add it to the top again.

(If it falls down, don't worry. God is in the business of building walls back up.)

Praise our Father

Praise and thank our Heavenly Father for He is good - all the time.

“The light shines through the darkness and the darkness can never extinguish it.”

- JOHN 1:5

Rebuild the Walls

Write your request for God to rebuild broken systems and restore justice around the world, on a brick.

“You’ll use the old rubble of past lives to build anew... You’ll be known as those who can fix anything, restore old ruins, rebuild and renovate, make the community liveable again.”

- ISAIAH 58:12 (MSG)
